

Kilburn Infant & Nursery School

EXTERNAL CONTRIBUTORS

Introduction

This is a recommended guidance for primary/ Secondary schools/special/support and alternative provision and the guidance uses:

- The current Keeping Children Safe in Education, Statutory Guidance for Schools/Colleges ;
- The Prevent Duty Guidance for England and Wales.

This guidance supports the schools/settings:

- Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy;
- Extremism & Radicalisation Policy (non-statutory);
- PSHE/RSE Policy.

Why do we need an External Contributors/speakers policy?

School/educational settings recognise that using external agencies can enrich and support the curriculum and the school ethos. Children and young people often find visitors an informative and interesting element of their learning.

We wish to ensure that delivery by external contributors/speakers is consistent with school policy, curriculum and ethos. It is important that these opportunities are positive ones and are productive for the pupils, staff and the outside agency/visitor and that safeguarding is also taken into account.

Roles and Responsibilities

Schools/educational settings are under a duty to promote community cohesion and must be satisfied that any speakers or contributors, they invite will not undermine that duty.

All schools are subject to requirements to forbid political indoctrination and secure a balanced treatment of political issues. This extends to extra-curricular activities which are provided or organised for registered pupils at the school by or on behalf of the school (Section 406 and 407 of the Education Act 1996)

Schools/educational settings must also ensure, that in making any decisions about whether to host an external speaker, that they comply with the public sector equality duty (Equality Act 2010) and that they are not discriminating by reference to protected characteristics (age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage & civil partnership, pregnancy & maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation)

External contributors/speakers are visitors as defined by Keeping Children Safe in Education Statutory guidance for schools/colleges. Any visitor to the school/setting who has unsupervised access to children and or who works in the school/setting on a regular basis has to be subject to DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) checks, and any other checks deemed suitable by the regulations when in unsupervised contact with children.

External contributors/speakers should not be left in sole charge of pupils, or take groups of pupils/students out and away from a supervisor/staff member/teacher who has the DBS and related checks.

In all instances, whether or not the external contributor is DBS-checked, a staff member/teacher must be present in the classroom or agreed venue for the whole of the visit/event:

- To ensure safeguarding processes are met;
- To maintain responsibility for class discipline;
- To deal with any need for a pupil/student who may need advice/support;
- To ensure aspects of confidentiality dependent upon the activity/event;
- To devise follow-up work to reinforce pupils' learning.

It would not be usual for any external contributor/speaker to require details of the participants and their contacts. If they are requesting information and contacts this will need careful consideration, and as to the purpose and motivation for such a request.

Schools/settings are also requested to consider extremely carefully any unsolicited approaches from individuals or groups offering on line websites, resources and programmes. If there are reasons to be specifically concerned about an approach, a school/setting should be contacting the police to report the concerns.

The Derby City and Derbyshire Safeguarding Children Board quality assures training providers and publishes a list (on the derby city website but applicable for Derbyshire too) of trainers and organisations who have demonstrated both their suitability and that they meet standards in the materials delivered.

When involving external contributors, staff will ensure that:

- They are clear about the objectives before deciding who is best able to help achieve them;
- The external contribution is integrated into the school's programme and is supported by staff to enrich and support the visit/event;
- Where possible, pupils are involved in preparatory and follow-up work;
- The content is planned/ known to ensure that it meets the needs of pupils and is consistent with school policy, curriculum and ethos;
- They are aware of appropriate school policies relating to handling sensitive issues and confidentiality, health and safety and any specific policies relating to subject content such as drug education and sex and relationship education.
- The school is fully aware of the external agencies aims and objectives for delivering to the school;

- They are aware of good practice of national and local approaches and support to Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE);
- It is not appropriate to encourage pupils to reveal any personal information that may incriminate themselves or others or that they wish to remain confidential.
- All external contributors/speakers are aware of their roles, responsibilities and boundaries, i.e. that they work to the professional boundaries of the teacher when taking part in the curriculum.
- The value of the external contribution is assessed through appropriate feedback and evaluation. This information should be shared and used to inform future work.

All staff considering using external contributors/speakers should read and abide by the recommended attached forms and agreements:

- Checklist for schools/Educational settings using external contributors/speakers;
- Checklist for the external contributor/speaker to use and discuss with the organiser;
- Service level Agreement and contract.

Staff should also include a discussion with the senior Designated Safeguarding Lead of the KINS, and be approved.

KINS may also require an appropriate risk assessment dependent upon the activity/event and retain this for their records.

Management

The guidance should be made known to all staff, volunteers and governors. It should be used in all cases.

The Head Teacher will report on issues or impact on KINS in relation to this activity to the Governing body.
